

65. SOMETIMES

- A. I sometimes cook.
- B. He sometimes rides a train.
- C. We sometimes visit my grandmother.
- D. My father sometimes plays computer games.
- E. They sometimes go here.

66. BUT

- A. I like basketball but my brother likes soccer.
- B. We will try to go there but we can't promise.
- C. Computers are very useful but very expensive.
- D. The cake was very delicious but it is too sweet.
- E. He wants to play again but he is tired already.

67. ALWAYS

- A. I will always love you.
- B. Does she always come here?
- C. Do you always take a bath?
- D. He is always the person who cleans the house.
- E. We always go out for dinner.

68. SINCE

- A. I have been working here since June.
- B. Since when did you start learning English?
- C. She loves Hello Kitty since she was kindergarten.
- D. It has been raining since this morning.
- E. My mother gave me her car since she got a new one.

69. FOR

- A. I have been working here for 3 years already.
- B. I need to go home now for my father is already angry.
- C. For how long do you plan to study English?
- D. I bought this for you.
- E. I don't have any questions for now.

70. DURING

- A. It is very cold in Hokkaido during winter.
- B. Everybody was listening to her during her presentation.
- C. During breaks, we enjoy talking about our dreams.
- D. We enjoy talking about our dreams during breaks.
- E. What do you do during your break time?

71. THROUGH

- A. She remained to be a friend through thick and thin.
- B. I am through with my work.
- C. He came in through the window.
- D. Please breathe through your nose.
- E. Are you through with your homework?

72. MAKE UP

- A. Her creations have also inspired customers to copy her designs or make up their own.
- B. It may take me two weeks to make up my mind.
- C. The students want to have a makeup class for their absence.
- D. The test requires the writer to make up stories.
- E. Do you want to make up for your father's loss?